Timing: 9AM - 5PM (Suggested:5h)

Rating: 7.3/10

Started in 2012 with a single person's vision: Rahul Choudhary, Elephantastic is the entrepreneurial dream that started from the winding up roads of Amer Fort. Rahul and his elephant worked at the Amber Palace ferrying tourists up and down the winding road, day in & out answering passengers curious questions about elephants. A blazing entrepreneurial spirit helped Rahul create inroads to building a company which not only answers questions about elephants and their lives in an up-close personal way but also strives to give a fantastic experience to first time India travellers.

05:13 PM Jal Mahal

Category: Palace, Landmarks

Timing: 9AM - 5PM (Suggested:2h)

Rating: 7.4/10

Jal Mahal (meaning "Water Palace") is a palace located in the middle of the Man Sagar Lake in Jaipur city. The palace and the lake around it were renovated and enlarged in the 18th century by Maharaja Jai Singh II of Amber. Traditional boat-makers from Vrindavan have crafted the Rajput style wooden boats. Across the lake, you can view the hills, dotted with temples and ancient forts, and on the other side, bustling Jaipur. A beautiful site worth visiting.

Timing: 10AM - 5PM (Suggested:2h)

Rating: 7.8/10

Nahargarh Fort stands on the edge of the Aravalli Hills, overlooking the pink city of Jaipur in the Indian state of Rajasthan. The view of the city from the fort is impressive. Open from 10 AM not 8:00 am Along with Amer Fort and Jaigarh Fort, Nahargarh once formed a strong defense ring for the city. The fort was originally named Sudarshangarh, but it became known as Nahargarh, which means 'abode of tigers'. The popular belief is that Nahar here stands for Nahar Singh Bhomia, whose spirit haunted the place and obstructed construction of the fort. Nahar's spirit was pacified by building a temple in his memory within the fort, which thus became known by his name.
